

QUALITY POLICY

At Moellhausen S.p.A. Customer Satisfaction and Quality Culture are an integral part of our Corporate Business Principles.

Quality Culture is the driving force behind Moellhausen's excellence and the excellence of all of our partners, regulating the integration of each internal function with a dynamic whole of individuals with diverse – but synergic – skills and goals.

Moellhausen S.p.A. is an outstanding Italian company that globally manufactures and distributes industrial raw materials and specialty chemicals fully in compliance with Italian and European law and applying in the commercial exchanges the rules established in the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (Vienna 1980).

Moellhausen's activity operates with a broad sense of responsibility towards our customers, the people that work with us, and the environment, which provides the used raw materials.

Moellhausen is committed to meet customer requests ensuring:

- products with high standards of Quality and Safety fully in compliance with Customer and applicable statutory and regulatory requirements;
- on time deliveries
- creativity and flexibility consistent with the idea of product defined and needs of the market;

Moellhausen is reviewing systematically Objectives and Policy to maintain them updated and to guide the Company towards excellence through a process of Continuous Improvement.
